

PRE-GED Practice

Exercise 5, Page 26

1. (1) The overall figures show more immigrants coming from Europe, about 63 percent.
2. (3) Nearly half (47%) came from Latin America and the Caribbean.
3. (3) The percentage of persons coming to the United States from Latin America and the Caribbean during 1981–1990 was 47 percent, a 29 percent increase over the broad period 1820–1992.
4. (1) The graph on the left gives you this information.